Mrs. Thorne is my language arts and social studies teacher. She is definitely the most amazing teacher I have ever met, she makes the most boring subjects fun. She doesn't just make school fun; she makes it a place where we learn. Mrs. Thorne also has the most creative stuff in her class room, she calls it her museum. For example, she has a huge life size Egyptian sarcophagus in her class. His name is Ozzy. She has a mace, a real sword, and a painting of a night from the middle ages. Also she has statues, books, tablets written in ancient Greek and Egyptian. Mrs. Thorn believes that showing visual aids help people understand more about what they're studying; and her museum sure helps us. She uses power points with pictures and information and I know that the document camera would help us so incredibly much. Mrs. Thorne uses her own money for all of these things that I have mentioned and I think she deserves something great that she would love (and that we could learn better from) given to her rather than spend her own money. With the document camera she could teach so much more, plus she was horrible hand writing and when she uses an overhead it is a disaster. She is defiantly very creative and could think of billions of ways to help her students learn more things easier and faster with this document camera. There is no doubt in my mind that my teacher deserves this more than any one in the world!
